

1. Resolution Switching (via srcset)

The composition is mathematically identical; only the pixel density changes. It is safe for the Browser Engine to autonomously swap these images based on network speed.

2. Art Direction (via <picture>)

The composition is deliberately cropped to preserve the focal subject (🐕) on different screens. The Browser Engine must not swap these! If it chose the wide image for mobile, the dog would be invisible.

